

How To - Configuration

Pages

- How to access the documentation via JOC and JOE
- How to change the location of the JobScheduler configuration
- How to configure remote execution
- How to create global variables
- How to determine allowed hosts for a JobScheduler installation
- How to ensure changes to parameters defined in external files are updated
- How to implement Central Configuration with a Supervisor JobScheduler
- How to increase or decrease the Java heap space
- How to manage the Java heap space
- How to modify the JobScheduler ID
- How to operate JobScheduler with Jetty
- How to poll a server in the DMZ and execute a job chain for each file found
- How to restrict the JobScheduler Agent to listen to specific network interfaces when using HTTP and HTTPS
- How to restrict the JobScheduler Master to listen to specific network interfaces when using HTTP or HTTPS
- How to use Jetty for your own applications
- How to use Process Classes

Navigation

Further Resources

License Error

Reason: EXPIRED

Examples in Detail

- Example showing an architecture for forwarding files from multiple nodes
- Example showing configuration of JobScheduler in an application cluster with load balancing
- Examples for the use of locks
- How to install JobScheduler in an Amazon AWS EC2 cloud instance

License Error

Reason: EXPIRED

Troubleshooting

- A JobScheduler job executing Windows shell command throws an access denied error
- How to handle MySQL database errors on JobScheduler start-up
- SCHEDULER-320 could not send mail

License Error

Reason: EXPIRED