

FAQ - Programming Interfaces

Pages

- FAQ - API Interface
 - How can I best get started with the JobScheduler Java API Reference Impl?
- FAQ - XML Interface
 - How do I forward XML commands to JobScheduler?
 - Which commands does JobScheduler execute via HTTP GET?
- How do you implement Jobs with Perl?

Navigation

Further Resources

How To ... Articles

- Example - How to Send an XML Command Over a Message Queue
- Example - How to Write Java JobScheduler Jobs that communicate over a Message Queue
- How to access order parameters and job parameters using the JobScheduler API
- How to create an internal API job
- How to ensure that the response to a <show_jobs> command contains all jobs
- How To make Eclipse meet JIRA
- How to program the JobScheduler API in .NET
- How to program the JobScheduler API in C#
- How to program the JobScheduler API in Java
- How to program the JobScheduler API in Perl
- How to program the JobScheduler API in PowerShell
- How to use JMS integration with a Message Service

License Error

Reason: EXPIRED

Examples

- Examples - Programming Interfaces
- Examples showing how to use the JobScheduler external API

License Error

Reason: EXPIRED

Troubleshooting

- Cannot locate strict Perl Module
-

License Error

Reason: EXPIRED